

Never gave up the fight.

The winning of sports awards, driving a car, and speaking in public all belie the severe handicap faced and overcome by Rosanne Laflamme. Her story is on page 17.

Which system will it be?

FRENCH IMMERSION or CORE CURRICULUM — today The Transcript considers the pros and cons of both approaches, and the reason behind the rhetoric. See page 17.

Disabled skier of the year — a Calgary girl, Leslie Binnion has been named Alberta's "Disabled Skier of the Year". She was presented with the Eileen Lloyd Memorial Trophy at Mount Norquay on March 18. Leslie, who has cerebral palsy, took up skiing under a "learn to ski" program of the Alberta Association for Disabled Skiing during the 1977-78 season and is now an avid skier.
